I left New York June 20th, engaged by Mr. Ten Broeck to ride either one or the other of his horses in the Goodwood Cup. I arrived at Southampton on the 30th of June, and immediately departed for our training stable at Stockbridge, which I reached the following day. Broeck's directions as to those portions of the track to be taken to suit the mare, and whatever ground 1 may have lost in this way, I more than made up subsequently. The simple fact is, the horses were worn out with long and useless kind of work During nearly a twelve months previously, they had never even had a sweat (so the boys told me) from the time they landed, until I arrived in England. The consequences may be imagined, namely, want of all condition, and absolute need of rest-they were full of fat-burnt up inside, leg weary, and had no vitality

No a $1 90 for inferior and ordinary quality, and $1 95 a $2 turpentine reported. each for selected. FLOUR-Remains without quotable change so far as regards prices, though appearances indicate a downward tendency. The advices continue to be unfavorable, reporting a decline in other markets, and rates at which it is held here are too high for shipment. The receipts per railroad during the past week have been rather better, and in the absence o any transactions, except in the retail way, the stock in first hands has accumulated, and may be considered fully fair.— A few small lots of State brands found purchasers in the early part of the week at $7 25 for superfine, but it is now reely offered at this figure, which cannot be had; our quotations, therefore, may be looked upon as merely nominal. Guano - We note the sale a few days since (to arrive) of a lot of 15 tons Peruvian at $65 per 2000 lbs., and 135 do. do.

at $65 per 2240 lbs. GRAIN-In the market for Conn we notice considerable dullness during the past week, and prices have gone down shade: there is a good supply in store, and dealers show but little disposition to operate even at the decline. The receipts comprise only about 7,400 bushels, of which 1,400 bushels PHE Subscriber offers for sale his TURPENTINE DIS-TILLERY, situated at Long Creek, New Hanover at prices ranging from 44 to 724 cents; the balance has been County. Eastern at $1 per 100 lbs. LIME-The stock in dealers' hands is fully fair, and demand light. Sales in the small way from store at $1 35 a $1 40 per bbl., as in quantity. Molasses—The market is very well supplied, and there is little or no demand existing. We quote Cuba 52 a 53 cents n hhds., and 58 a 60 cents in bbls.; and W. I. at 48 cents in hhds., and 50 cents in bbls.

Potatoes-Few or no Irish arriving, and market almost bare; in moderate demand. See table for quotations. Provisions-In N. C. cured Bacon there has been but litle doing since our last. Several small lots have been received during the week, but dealers do not seem disposed to purchase much at present high rates. We quote light transactions at 17 cents for hog round, 17 cents for sides and shoulders, and 18 cents per 1b. for hams. The receipts of Western cured for a few weeks have been exceedingly small, and with a moderate enquiry existing, the stock on market has become very light. We advance rates a shade, and quote from store at 14 a 15 cents for shoulders, and 16 a 164 cents per lb. for sides, as in quantity-generally held at highest prices .- LARD-There has been an active demand from retailers throughout the week, and the market has become almost entirely bare. In the absence of sales we quote N. C. make nominal at 18 cents. Western sells from store at 17 a 175 cents per lb. in bbls. - PORK-The advices received from the Northern markets since our last represent an advance in prices, and as a consequence rates here have gone up fully one dollar over previous quotations. The receipts continue small, and the supply on market is light, while there is a fair enquiry at present existing. We quote trans-actions from store at $26 a $28 per bbl. for mess, according
